"He is the biggest threat to Armenia's security."

The biggest threat to the security of Armenia and Karabakh is President Serzh Sargsyan, who is ready to hand over the territory.

According to Armtoday, the statement came from MP from "Heritage" Party Zaruhi Postanjyan at a briefing in parliament.

According to her, Serzh Sargsyan's statement that the Armenian side has lost only 800 hectares of land testifies to the fact that Armenia is ready to continue to hand over territory.

Postanjyan stressed that the loss of 800 hectares of these areas "has shaken the security of Karabakh, and one village is among the losses".
