
PRESIDENT ALIYEV RECEIVES RUSSIAN JUSTICE MINISTER

-

10.06.2016

9 June 2016

Trend

President of the Republic of Azerbaijan Ilham Aliyev has received Minister of Justice of the Russian Federation Alexander Konovalov.

During the meeting, successful development of bilateral relations between the Republic of Azerbaijan and the Russian Federation in all fields was emphasized. They noted that cooperation between different authorities of the two countries, including law enforcement and justice bodies contributes to the strengthening of these relations.

They underlined the importance of close collaboration between the justice authorities, particularly in providing legal assistance to people.

The significance of the visit of Russian Minister of Justice Alexander Konovalov was emphasized in terms of the further strengthening of the bilateral ties.

The sides exchanged views on cooperation prospects.

Kaynak/Source: