Relations between Turkey and Azerbaijan are priority in all spheres, said Turkey's Foreign Minister Mevlut Cavusoglu in Baku July 15.

Cavusoglu made the remarks during a joint press conference with his Azerbaijani counterpart Elmar Mammadyarov.

Many projects in the region have turned Azerbaijan into a hub, he said. The two countries have become transit centers and we will continue this cooperation.

Turkey's foreign minister said it is planned to create a new format of trilateral cooperation – the Azerbaijan-Turkey-Kazakhstan cooperation format.

There is a preliminary agreement on creating such a format of cooperation, he added.
