
ARMENIAN PARLIAMENT TO ABOLISH HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

-

07.09.2016

APA, Wed 07 September 2016

The number of parliamentary committees will be reduced from 12 to 10.

Armenia plans to abolish two parliamentary committees.

Report informs referring to the Armenian media that according to the new regulations of the Parliament of Armenia, the number of parliamentary committees could be reduced from 12 to 10.

Governance intends to reduce the European Integration Commission and Human Rights Commission.

The first commission will be attached to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, the second - to the Committee on State and Legal Affairs.

Kaynak/Source: