He was speaking at an OSCE Ministerial Council meeting in Hamburg, Germany.

First and foremost, we are interested in further development of regional stability through dialogue, peace and reconciliation - we must turn to the future and economic and general prosperity, especially as regards young people and more comprehensive cooperation on our common European path, Dacic said.

Serbia is committed to the EU-facilitated dialogue with Pristina and implementation of agreements reached to date, in particular those related to establishing the Community of Serb Municipalities, Dacic said.

"We believe an open and sincere dialogue is the only way to improve the everyday life of all people in Kosovo and Metohija," Dacic noted.
