Russias President Vladimir Putin has congratulated the Azerbaijani President Ilham Aliyev on his birthday anniversary.

Please accept my sincere congratulations on your 55th birthday anniversary, Putin said addressing Ilham Aliyev in his congratulatory letter. You have rightfully earned sincere respect of your compatriots and a high international reputation as an experienced and farsighted statesman, who does a lot for Azerbaijan's social and economic development.

In Russia, you are known as a reliable friend of our country, a principled supporter of the strengthening of the Russia-Azerbaijan strategic partnership and the mutually beneficial cooperation in various areas, Putin said.

I highly appreciate the trust and mutual understanding between us. I am looking forward to continuation of the constructive dialogue with you and the fruitful joint work, Putin added.

President Putin wished Ilham Aliyev robust health, happiness, prosperity and success in his state activities.
