The next fall session of the OSCE Parliamentary Assembly (PA) will be held in Vienna, said the organization in a message posted on its website.

The 16th session, scheduled for Feb. 23-24, will be opened by OSCE PA President Christine Muttonen, as well as other high-ranking officials. During the session, participants will discuss political and military issues, as well as issues related to environment, economy and human rights.

An Azerbaijani delegation is also expected to attend the session.
