

AVRASYA
İNCELEMELERİ
MERKEZİ
CENTER FOR EURASIAN STUDIES

SECURITY FORCES KILL, WOUNDS 16 MEMBERS OF ISLAMIC STATE IN IRAQ

-

30.01.2017

Iraqi News, 28 Jan 2017

16 members of the Islamic State, including two suicide bombers, were either killed or wounded, in clashes with Iraqi security forces in different areas north of the country.

A security source in Kirkuk told Qatar News Agency (QNA), Iraqi forces killed four members of the Islamic State and wounded five others, after attacking the groups stronghold with mortar shells in central Hawija.

Another source in Mosul revealed that the groups militants launched an attack on Peshmerga forces in Aski Mosul village, northwest of the city. The attack was foiled and the Iraqi forces managed to kill seven members of the Islamic State, including two suicide bombers.

Meanwhile, a source in Baghdad said that Military Intelligence Service was able to seize large quantities of weapons and ammunition in al-Latifayah area, south of Baghdad.

Kaynak/Source: