
ISLAMIC STATE CLOSES ALL SHARIA COURTS IN WESTERN MOSUL

-

17.02.2017

Iraqi News, 16 Feb 2017

A local source in Nineveh Province declared that the Islamic State group closed the so-called Sharia Courts in western Mosul, Alsumaria News reported on Thursday.

The source said, The Islamic State closed the remaining Sharia Courts in western Mosul, and started to evacuate its alternative headquarters immediately.

The authority of Sharia Courts was transferred to the fields Emirs, with the approaching offensive in western Mosul, the source added on condition of anonymity.

Islamic States Sharia Court is a very important entity in the group, and has many authorities including arrest warrants.

Kaynak/Source: