Historian scholar from Uzbekistan Salamov Shukhrat Nasirovich has made a statement about joining Armenia-Azerbaijan Platform for Peace.

APA presents the statement:

Peace is the most superior virtue that people want in this world. That's why I believe peaceful solution of Nagorno Karabakh conflict. I express my respect and support to territorial integrity, sovereignty and internationally recognized borders of Azerbaijan and Armenia.

Furthermore, I would like to stress the importance of UN Security Council resolutions and other resolutions and decisions of other international organizations. I emphasize the importance of measures taken by OSCE Minsk Group towards the settlement of the conflict.

As a historian, I would like to note that Armenian and Azerbaijani nations lived together in peace and prosperity before the conflict. These relations were the result of neighbourhood and friendship. I want to state with regret that the perception between these two nations has formed in the context of war as a result of unresolved conflict. I support the peace initiative and believe that this initiative will contribute to the solution of the conflict. Therefore, I make a statement about joining Armenia-Azerbaijan Platform for Peace, which is aimed at peaceful solution of the conflict and restoring and preserving peace in South Caucasus.
