Dacic on Tuesday received ambassadors of Germany and the Czech Republic Axel Dittmann Ivana Hlavsova who handed him a letter of invitation, the Serbian government announced.

Dacic "expressed his gratitude for the invitation to participate in this event, and expressed hope he would be able to participate in a constructive exchange of views with colleagues from the countries of Southeast Europe and the EU."

The officials exchanged opinions on the ongoing Serbia's European integration, the situation in the region, as well as other important international issues.

The conference will be held on 31 May, in Berlin, organized by the Aspen Institute.
