They discussed about the Mission's "current and upcoming activities," Tanjug reported, citing a statement issued by Dacic's office.

During the meeting, "Serbia highlighted the good cooperation with OMIK, commending OMIK's activities in support of the holding of the April 2 Serbian presidential elections in Kosovo and Metohija," the statement said.

Dacic and Bratu "pointed to the importance of the OSCE Mission in Kosovo, as well as to the importance of implementation of its activities under its mandate and in a status neutral manner."
