H.H. Sheikh Abdullah bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, and Abdyldaev Erlan Bekeshovich, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Kyrgyzstan, yesterday signed an MoU on political consultations with the Kyrgyz Republic.

During the meeting, they exchanged views on a number of issues of mutual interest in the light of developments in the regional and international arenas, as well as means of enhancing bilateral relations and mechanisms for their development in various fields.

In a speech during a joint press conference, the Foreign Minister of the Kyrgyz Republic said that the meeting covered means of developing the Kyrgyz-UAE historical and cultural relations, strengthening them and boosting friendly relations and close cooperation between the two countries, pointing out that H.H. Sheikh Abdullah bin Zayed Al Nahyan is the first foreign minister from the Arab countries to visit the Kyrgyz Republic.

The two sides stressed the importance of organising exchanges of visits at the level of senior officials between the Kyrgyz Republic and the UAE, including the participation of both sides in important events such as the World Summit for the Conservation of the White Tiger to be held on 25th August, 2017, in Bishkek, and Expo 2020 in Dubai.

The two countries expressed their interest in exchanging and enhancing trade activities by organising business visits for representatives of companies, organisations and institutions from both countries through the Kyrgyz-UAE Business Forum which will be held today in Bishkek.

"The UAE is happy to have an embassy in the Kyrgyz Republic. Through this mission, we hope that we can push this relationship forward to a higher level between the two countries and encourage tourism, investment and trade," Sheikh Abdullah went on to say.

extremism and terrorism, financing of terrorism and violence, trying to cause instability in the region.

"I appealed to Iran to deal with its surroundings under international law and to respect the sovereignty of states and stop supporting and funding terrorist organisations," he said, adding, "This brings us back to the scenes we saw in the Manchester incident. What happened in Manchester reminds us of the extent of international negligence for joint work in the face of extremism and terrorism."

"We must intensify our efforts and our work and not wait until terrorist operations become a reality which nations and peoples accept," he said. "We can not change our lives. We must work better as countries to end this, and to fully sympathise with our British friends and the families of the victims. The UAE will not hesitate in confronting these challenges. "

The meeting was attended by Mohammed Hareb al-Muhairbi, UAE non-resident Ambassador in Kyrgyzstan.
