The daily Vecernje Novosti is also reporting in its printed Wednesday edition that Vucic made his decision.

According to the media outlets, the composition of the entire government should be known on June 21 or 22, when National Assembly Speaker Maja Gojkovic could schedule a sitting of the Assembly that will vote on the new cabinet.

Vucic's inauguration has been scheduled for June 23.

The media have been speculating that favorites to replace Vucic as prime minister are SPS leader Acting PM and Foreign Minister Ivica Dacic, State Administration Minister Ana Brnabic, and Novi Sad Mayor Milos Vucicevic.

However, all of them, as well as other officials of the ruling coalition, on several occasions said that the final decision would be made by Vucic.
