Armenia is on the list of Saudi Arabias targets, analyst Hayk Martirosyan told Armenian News-NEWS.am.

In his words, Saudi Arabia is a quite dangerous country for all civilized world, especially for the regional countries with a Sunni Muslim majority.

Armenia is a small, insignificant, defenseless area for the [Saudi] kingdom, Martirosyan stressed. And there can be no doubt that by being so close to the Arabian Peninsula and on the way to Europe, it [Armenia] enters the list of Saudi targets—albeit not yet seemingly, but definitely.

The analyst added that Saudi Arabias new crown prince, Mohammad bin Salman, has huge ambitions.
