

AVRASYA
İNCELEMELERİ
MERKEZİ
CENTER FOR EURASIAN STUDIES

GHANI LEAVES KABUL FOR TAJIKISTAN ON OFFICIAL VISIT

- 06.07.2017

Tolo News (6 July 2017)

President Ashraf Ghani left Kabul early Thursday for Dushanbe, the capital of Tajikistan, on a one-day official visit to participate in a CASA-1000 power project meeting, Ghani's office said in a statement.

Ghani is expected to deliver a speech at the meeting and will also meet Tajikistan President Emomali Rahmon where they will discuss the issue of strengthening ties between both countries, the statement said.

The statement said Ghani will also participate in a meeting between Afghanistan, Tajikistan and Pakistan and attend an agriculture exhibition.

Ghani Leaves Kabul for Tajikistan On Official Visit MORE SOCIALS President Ghani left Kabul on Thursday on a one-day official visit to Tajikistan where he will meet with his Tajik counterpart. President Ashraf Ghani left Kabul early Thursday for Dushanbe, the capital of Tajikistan, on a one-day official visit to participate in a CASA-1000 power project meeting, Ghani's office said in a statement. Ghani is expected to deliver a speech at the meeting and will also meet Tajikistan President Emomali Rahmon where they will discuss the issue of strengthening ties between both countries, the statement said. The statement said Ghani will also participate in a meeting between Afghanistan, Tajikistan and Pakistan and attend an agriculture exhibition.

Kaynak/Source: