
NEW ENERGY MINISTER APPOINTED IN GEORGIA

-

12.07.2017

12 July 2017

Trend

Ilia Eloshvili was appointed as Georgias energy minister, Georgia Online quoted the countrys Prime Minister George Kvirikashvili as saying July 12.

Since 2012, Eloshvili has served as the first deputy energy minister and made a great contribution to all projects implemented by Georgias Ministry of Energy, Kvirikashvili told a government meeting.

Eloshvili also has experience in both private and public sectors, the PM said and expressed confidence that the appointee will successfully serve as an energy minister.

Kaynak/Source: