They discussed "future activities of the center for cooperation in the field of traffic and infrastructure," the Serbian government announced.

Mihajlovic, who is one of deputy PMs, "recalled that this center, based in Belgrade, was established within the framework of the mechanism of cooperation between China and 16 countries of Central and Eastern Europe."

According to her, thanks to cooperation with China, Serbia is becoming an investment center in this part of Europe.

"We have a lot of experience in realizing projects of European and regional importance, and at the same time we are one of the largest partners of China in the mechanism of cooperation with 16 countries of Central and Eastern Europe, and we want to use this experience in order to develop the whole region faster," Mihajlovic said.
