Sarajevo Times (5 September 2017)

The Prime Minister of Croatia Andrej Plenkovic will pay a two-day visit to BiH today, and on this occasion, he will visit Livno, Siroki Brijeg and Mostar.

He will be accompanied by the State Secretary of the Central State Office for Croats outside the Republic of Croatia Zvonko Milas and State Secretary at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and European Affairs Zdravka Busic.

With representatives of state and local authorities, Plenkovic will discuss development, infrastructure, economic and cultural projects that are co-financed by the Government of the Republic of Croatia in BiH.

The Croatian Prime Minister will first visit Livno, where he will meet with the Mayor of Livno Luka Celan at 2 PM, and after that, the delegation will visit the Secondary Vocational School Silvija Strahimir Kranjcevic.

The arrival of Croatia Prime Minister in Siroki Brijeg is expected around 4:30 PM. He will visit the Franciscan monastery and the Franciscan gallery in this city, and then attend the meeting with the Mayor Miro Kraljevic.

The Prime Minister of Croatia will open the soup kitchen of Fr. Didak Buntic in the city of Mostar, and later he will attend the official ceremony at the Croatian House of Stjepan Kosaca on the occasion of marking 100 years of the rescue of children of Herzegovina from hunger and death.

On Wednesday, September 6, Plenkovic will visit the Croatian Documentation Center of Homeland War in BiH, which was founded as a scientific institution in August 2013, and his visit will be completed after he visits the Clinical Hospital of the University of Mostar.
