"Bulgaria and Romania are to build another bridge over the Dunabe near Russe, Bulgarias Premier Boyko Borisov announced on Sunday.

The topic will be discussed during the joint Bulgaria-Romania intergovernmental sitting in October this year. In his words, a new bridge over the Dunabe can be built without state expenditures.

The construction of a second Dunabe bridge near Russe can be financed entirely without money from toll taxes after the introduction of the road till system.

Boyko Borisov said adding that a second Dunabe Bridge Bridge near Russe will have a very positive economic impact on the Bulgarian city.

"The city has also begun a major renovation of two of the largest schools and three kindergartens", added Borisov.
