Korca and Vlora will be the cities that will welcome the government of Albania and the government of Kosovo in their next meetings. This was confirmed by Prime Minister of Albania, Edi Rama following the meeting with deputy Prime Minister of Kosovo, Behgjet Pacoli, adding that the meetings will be held on 27 and 28 November.

On his first official visit after assuming office, Pacoli chose Albania where he was received by his Albanian counterpart, Ditmir Bushati.

According to minister Bushati, economic diplomacy is the focus of this mandate and for this, he had an invitation for minister Pacoli.

After this meeting, Pacoli had a meeting with the Head of the State, Ilir Meta, congratulating him on his new position and praising his personal role in the recognition of the independence of Kosovo.
