Sarajevo Times (18 October 2017)

Chairman of the Council of Ministers of BiH Denis Zvizdic met with the Prime Minister of Macedonia Zoran Zaev in Skopje and they discussed the topics of regional co-operation, linking of roads and the establishment of direct flights between Sarajevo and Skopje.

Zvizdic thanked PM Zaev for the invitation for the Summit of leaders and congratulated on the victory of the SDSM party in local elections, adding that it represents a result of the persistence on building peace and strengthening of economic integrations of the (..) Balkans.

Zvizdic and Zaev also discussed the realization of the official visit of the Council of Ministers of BiH to the Government of the Republic of Macedonia by the end of this year and agreed to sign a series of agreements on that occasion that are in the interest of citizens of the two countries.

Their meeting was also attended by Ambassador of BiH to Macedonia, Lepa Babic.

Zvizdic attends the Summit of 100 business leaders of the South East Europe in Skopje and he will participate with other regional prime ministers in the panel Can the region compete on a global playground, as announced by the Council of Ministers of BiH.
