Serbia's First Deputy PM and Foreign Minister will on Tuesday represent his country at a UN Security Council session dedicated to Kosovo.

The meeting at the UN headquarters in New York will consider the UN secretary-general's latest report on the work of the UN mission (UNMIK) in Kosovo and Metohija, covering the period between July 16 and October 15.

According to the Serbian government, Dacic will speak about the report, "i.e, he will present our assessment of the situation in Kosovo and Metohija and UNMIK's activity."
