Sarajevo Times (30 November 2017)

The Republic of Guinea opened an Honorary Consulate in BiH with its headquarters in Gradacac, on Monday.

Pasaga Inkic from Gradacac was named as the honorary consul. The opening ceremony was attended by Almamy Kobele Keita, as well as the Consul in the Embassy of the Republic of Guinea in Belgrade, honorary consuls of Bulgaria and Montenegro, a representative of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of BiH and the mayor of this municipality Edis Dervisagic.

The main role of this consulate is the establishment and strengthening of economic cooperation between BiH and this part of Europe with the Republic of Guinea and the neighboring countries, as stated at the opening ceremony.
