The Prime Minister of Armenia, Karen Karapetyan, on Sunday congratulated the Premier of the State Council of China, Li Keqiang, on his reelection to this office.

We [Armenia] attach great importance to continued development and deepening of cooperation with China, the Armenian PMs congratulatory message reads, in particular. Cooperation between Armenia and China has had considerable development.

[But] multilateral Armenian-Chinese cooperation still has considerable unused potential, and I stand ready with you, honorable Mr. Prime Minister, to exert efforts (...) to deepen and develop it.
