Azerbaijan expects the European Union will demonstrate an unambiguous position on its territorial integrity, said Ambassador Kamil Khasiyev, a representative of Azerbaijan's Foreign Ministry.

He made the remarks at the 15th meeting of the EU-Azerbaijan Parliamentary Cooperation Committee in Baku on May 8, APA reports.

Speaking about the negotiation process on the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict, the ambassador said that the agreements signed between the EU and Armenia lack the organizations unambiguous position on Azerbaijan's territorial integrity.

We believe that such cases will not cast a shadow on the relations between Azerbaijan and the EU. A new agreement to be signed between Azerbaijan and the EU will express support for the country's territorial integrity, Khasiyev added.
