
ARMENIA MILITARY POLICE CHIEF ATTENDS NATO-PARTNER CONFERENCE

-

25.09.2018

News.am (25 September 2018)

A delegation from Armenia, and led by Chief of Military Police Artur Baghdasaryan, participated in the NATO-Partner annual NATO Military Police Chiefs Conference, in the Bulgarian capital city of Sofia.

At the event, the discussants conferred on the opportunities for military police activities as well as modernization of regional and global security.

Within the framework of this conference, the Armenian Military Police delegation met also with the top military police officials from several countries. They discussed the avenues for strengthening defense cooperation between NATO-partner countries, and reached agreements on the development of their cooperation.

<https://news.am/eng/news/472793.html>

Kaynak/Source: