Spokesperson for the Armenian acting Prime Minister Arman Yeghoyan refuted the information as if Nikol Pashinyan is not going to participate in Eurasian Economic Union session.

Was it difficult to clarify the information before releasing disinformation? Armenias acting PM will be on holiday till December 5. There was a time when while writing unconfirmed information a question mark at least was being put, he said.

The PM will participate in the December 6 EAEU supreme economic council session works, Yeghoyan wrote in the Facebook page.

The information as if the acting PM will not participate in the session was written by Zhamanak paper. The paper wrote as if he would be replaced by Ararat Mirzoyan.
