The Yerevan Court of General Jurisdiction on Wednesday decided to extend for two more months the remanding in custody of Armenias former MP and Yerkrpah (Defender of the Land) Volunteer Union Board ex-Chairman, General Manvel Grigoryan.

Also, the court denied the defenses motion to release Grigoryan on an AMD 20-million (approx. US$41,000) bail.

Manvel Grigoryan was arrested on June 19. He is charged with unlawfully keeping weapons and ammunition, and committing large-scale embezzlement. In particular, it is about the embezzlement of the aid that was sent during the days of the four-day war in Nagorno-Karabakh (Artsakh), in April 2016.
