Armenias acting Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan made a post in his Twitter microblog relating to Nagorno Karabakh conflict.

Peaceful resolution of Nagorno Karabakh conflict remains top priority for us. We will continue with the peace process for the benefit of regional peace & security. Resolution requires genuine efforts of all parties, the acting PM wrote.

The post comes after president of Azerbaijan İlham Aliyev a while earlier made a post relating to NK conflict settlement.

The year 2019 will give a new impetus to the Armenia-Azerbaijan Nagorno-Karabakh conflict settlement process, Azerbaijani president wrote.
