Ukraine, Georgia and Moldova signed a memorandum on creation of an interagency platform for the exchange of experience in the integration of territories not controlled by the governments and the counteraction to the Russian Federation.

"Ukraine, Georgia and Moldova signed a memorandum on creation of a trilateral interagency platform for the exchange of experience in the integration of territories not controlled by the governments and the counteraction to the Russian Federation," the press service of the Ministry of Ukraine of Temporarily Occupied Territories and Internally Displaced Persons reports.

The document was signed by Deputy Prime Minister of Moldova for Reintegration Cristina Lesnic, Minister of Ukraine of Temporarily Occupied Territories and Internally Displaced Persons Vadym Chernysh and State Minister for Reconciliation and Civic Equality of Georgia Ketevan Tsikhelashvili in Tbilisi on December 19.

The trilateral platform provides for the exchange of experience in the field of human rights, counteraction to Kremlins propaganda and information warfare, establishing and maintaining the links with people living in the temporarily occupied territories of Ukraine, Georgia and the territories without effective control of the Republic of Moldova as well as analyzing the current situation and assessing the risks.

The parties also agreed to facilitate the exchange of relevant knowledge and skills.
