
SYRIA NATIONAL THREATENS ARMENIA MINISTRY STAFF

-

26.12.2018

News.am (26 December 2018)

A Syrian citizen in Armenia on Monday threatened some ministry staff, in capital city Yerevan.

At 9:50am on that day, police received a report informing that a person was insulting and cursing at the employees at Government Building No. 3, and he was threatening to break the glass with a stick and pour it on this staff.

According to shamshyan.com, police inspectors were dispatched to the scene where a specialist from the Ministry of Health said Syrian citizen Yeghia K. [] now resides in Yerevan [] threatened to cause serious injury to himself and several personnel of the ministry.

As per the source, the police report on this incident has been transferred to the investigative department.

<https://news.am/eng/news/488127.html>

Kaynak/Source: