
RUSSIAN MILITARY LAUNCHES TANK BATTLE EXERCISES IN ARMENIA

-

17.01.2019

ArmenPress (16 January 2019)

The 102nd Russian military base in Gyumri, Armenias second largest city, has launched military exercises involving its T-72B tank units, the Russian Southern Military District said in a press release.

The drills are taking place in the Alagyaz training facility.

The military exercise scenario involves choosing firing positions during combat, position concealment and anti-infantry and anti-equipment battle.

More than 100 Russian soldiers and 30 military equipment units are involved in the field exercises.

<https://armenpress.am/eng/news/960947/>

Kaynak/Source: