Azerbaijans Ambassador to the Czech Republic Farid Shafiyev has met with the countrys Minister of Agriculture Miroslav Toman. The parties discussed ways to expand cooperation in agriculture between the two countries, especially by increasing agricultural production exported from Azerbaijan to the Czech Republic.

The sides also exchanged views over completing collaborative projects which need investments to the field.

As a result of the discussions, the parties agreed to hold a visit of experts from leading companies and scientific-research experts in agriculture to Azerbaijan in March.
