
IRAQ AGREES TO IMPORT PAKISTANI MANPOWER FOR DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES

- 24.01.2019

Radio Pakistan (24 January 2019)

Special Assistant to Prime Minister on Overseas Pakistanis and Human Resource Development Zulfikar Bukhari called on Iraqi President Barham Salih in Baghdad.

He apprised the President that Pakistan seeks an increase in its labor force in Iraq amid the development activities in the country.

The two sides agreed upon creating a mechanism to increase supply of Pakistani manpower to Iraq.

Zulfiqar Bukhari said all economic sectors in Iraq have the potential to see extraordinary growth in future and Pakistan has ample supply of manpower that can prove to be crucial for the development activities in the country.
