A group of Bulgarians from different business spheres has established an Australian-Bulgarian Business Council aimed at deepening trade and economic ties between Bulgaria and Australia, it became clear at a meeting between Bulgaria's Deputy Minister of Economy Lila Ivanova and Australia's Ambassador in Greece, Bulgaria and Romania Kate Logan.

In Lilia Ivanova's words, Bulgaria has the opportunity to boost exports of medicines, engines and electric devices, medical instruments, essential oils and other products to Australia, writes the Bulgarian National Radio.
