

---

IRAQ FERRY ACCIDENT SETS OFF POLITICAL UPHEAVAL IN MOSUL

-

25.03.2019

---

New York Times (24 March 2019)

In a rare show of deference to the anger of Mosul citizens over government abuses, the Iraqi Parliament on Sunday voted overwhelmingly to remove the provinces governor, citing accusations of corruption, self-dealing and negligence.

Although Mosul citizens had pleaded with the central government to remove the governor for more than two years, it was only after a ferry disaster brought angry citizens into the street that senior political figures decided to act.

To read the rest of the article, please click:

<https://www.nytimes.com/2019/03/24/world/middleeast/iraq-mosul-corruption.html>

---

Kaynak/Source: