National Assembly Speaker Marzouq Al-Ghanim held talks at his office with visiting Iraqi Prime Minister Adel Abdul-Mahdi and the delegation accompanying him on Wednesday.

The talks dealt with regional security and political issues with emphasis on the need to double efforts to deescalate the tensions and protect the security and stability in the region through peaceful means.

Both sides also discussed the bilateral relations and means to enhance them with a view to serving the common interests of both nations, Al-Dustor news network reported this evening.

The meeting gathered, from Kuwait, master of ceremonies and Minister of State for Cabinet Affairs Anas Al-Saleh, MPs Salah Khorshed and Khaled Al-Shatti, Secretary-General of the National Assembly Allam Al-Kandari and Ambassador to Iraq Salem Al-Zamanan, and Iraqi MPs Amer Al-Fayez, Haibet Al-Halbousi and Juan Fawzi, and Ambassador to Kuwait Alaa Al-Hashemi.
