Prime Minister of Montenegro Duško Marković and Prime Minister of North Macedonia Zoran Zaev, at joint session of the Government of Montenegro and the Government of the Republic of North Macedonia, concluded that they share the same values and foreign policy commitments. They also decided that the governments have to make additional efforts to implement projects and establish more intensive economic cooperation so that the results could lead to qualitative progress and valorization of great potential in numerous economic branches. As a positive example of effective cooperation between the two countries, the Prime Minister of Montenegro referred to the Euro-Atlantic integration, saying that Montenegro was one of the first countries to ratify the Protocol to the North Atlantic Treaty on the Accession of North Macedonia.
