
TIGRAN AVINYAN AND PIOTR SWITALSKI DISCUSS THE REFORMS IN ARMENIA

-

24.06.2019

MediaMax (21 June 2019)

Deputy Prime Minister of Armenia Tigran Avinyan has stressed the importance of the Comprehensive and Enhanced Partnership Agreement (CEPA) in the context of the ongoing reforms process in Armenia.

According to the Deputy Prime Ministers office, he has made that remark at the meeting with Head of EU Delegation to Armenia, Ambassador Piotr Switalski. During the meeting, Ambassador Switalski has presented the efforts, aimed at supporting the reforms, which the EU Delegation has taken so far.

The parties have touched on the matters of cooperation in state governance and exchanged ideas about efforts that can strengthen Armenia-EU ties in energy, high tech and business sectors.

<https://mediamax.am/en/news/politics/33945/>

Kaynak/Source: