
VON DER LEYEN SIGNALS SOFT TOUCH ON MIGRANTS, RULE OF LAW

-

19.07.2019

EU Observer (19 July 2019)

Countries who rejected non-European migrants or raised concern on rule of law, such as Poland, could expect more sympathy from the European Commission, its new president, Ursula von der Leyen, has indicated.

Italy could also expect flexibility on budgets and the UK on its exit date, she said in an interview with five European newspapers on Friday (19 July).

Kaynak/Source: