

AVRASYA
İNCELEMELERİ
MERKEZİ
CENTER FOR EURASIAN STUDIES

ARMENIAN GOVERNMENT DISSOLVES ANTI-CORRUPTION COUNCIL

-

26.07.2019

News.am (25 July 2019)

The Armenian government decided today to dissolve the Anti-Corruption Council.

The draft decision was submitted to the government by Minister of Justice Rustam Badasyan.

The Anti-Corruption Council was established on February 19, 2015 upon the decision of former Prime Minister of the Republic of Armenia Hovik Abrahamyan as the main body for the fight against corruption.

<https://news.am/eng/news/525763.html>

Kaynak/Source: