The Head of the Human Rights and Benevolence Center of the Armenian Defense Ministry, Colonel Alexander Avetisyan received Monday the delegation of the Kansas National Guard, US.

During the meeting, Avetisyan highlighted the importance of ensuring continuity of cooperation between the Head of the Human Rights and Benevolence Center and the Kansas National Guard. The parties noted the need to expand cooperation on issues of mutual interest, exchange experience visits, as well as increase training.

At the end of the meeting, the members of the delegation toured the Human Rights and Benevolence Center.
