
THE EU COMMITTEE'S GREAT 'PER DIEM' CHARADE

-

21.08.2019

EU Observer (21 August 2019)

On a chilly Tuesday morning in December 2018, trade unionist Liina Carr stepped out of her office in Brussels.

Her destination was a meeting 3km away at the European Economic and Social Committee (EESC), a consultative body that gives civil society groups and others a platform to express their opinions on EU issues.

Kaynak/Source: