Iraq will not be part of any military conflicts or political issues of a controversial nature, said the countrys Parliament Speaker, Mohammed al-Halbousi.

In a speech during the opening of the Meeting of Asian Parliamentary Assembly (APA) Standing Committee on Budget and Planning in Baghdad, Halbousi called on his allies in Iraq to acknowledge this policy.

We have followed a clear strategy that we dont hesitate to announce, and we expect all our allies to understand, namely to distance ourselves from any military conflicts and certain regional policies of a controversial nature, he explained.
