

AVRASYA
iNCELEMELERI
MERKEZI CENTER FOR EURASIAN STUDIES

20.09.2019

EU'S SEFCOVIC UPBEAT AFTER GAS TALKS WITH RUSSIA, UKRAINE

convergence of the position on most of the issues we discussed, Sefcovic told a news conference after a third round of trilateral talks in Brussels. Sefcovic said the sides had agreed that a future contract should be based on EU law and EU rules and it was important that Ukraines Naftogaz would be unbundled, creating a new company to handle transit of gas through Ukraine. We agreed * that we would resume our meeting at the political level by the end of October, when I hope we will have much more progress achieved on the issues that we put on the table today. (Reporting by Philip Blenkinsop; Editing by Chris Reese)
BRUSSELS (Reuters) Trilateral talks about the transit of Russian gas to Europe through Ukrain were constructive and have taken steps in the right direction, European commissioner Maros Sefcovic said on Thursday. I believe that today we have taken steps in the right direction. In other words, there was convergence of the position on most of the issues we discussed, Sefcovic told a news conference after a third round of trilateral talks in Brussels. Sefcovic said the sides had agreed that a future contract should be based on EU law and EU rules and it was important that Ukraines Naftogaz would be unbundled, creating a new company to handle transit of gas through Ukraine. We agreed * that we would resume our meeting at the political level by the end of October, when I hope we will have much more progress achieved on the issues that we put on the table today. (Reporting by Philip Blenkinsop; Editing by Chris Reese)
were constructive and have taken steps in the right direction, European commissioner Maros Sefcovic said on Thursday. I believe that today we have taken steps in the right direction. In other words, there was convergence of the position on most of the issues we discussed, Sefcovic told a news conference after a third round of trilateral talks in Brussels. Sefcovic said the sides had agreed that a future contract should be based on EU law and EU rules and it was important that Ukraines Naftogaz would be unbundled, creating a new company to handle transit of gas through Ukraine. We agreed * that we would resume our meeting at the political level by the end of October, when I hope we will have much more progress achieved on the issues that we put on the table today. (Reporting by Philip Blenkinsop; Editing by Chris Reese)	EuroNews (19 September 2019)
convergence of the position on most of the issues we discussed, Sefcovic told a news conference after a third round of trilateral talks in Brussels. Sefcovic said the sides had agreed that a future contract should be based on EU law and EU rules and it was important that Ukraines Naftogaz would be unbundled, creating a new company to handle transit of gas through Ukraine. We agreed * that we would resume our meeting at the political level by the end of October, when I hope we will have much more progress achieved on the issues that we put on the table today. (Reporting by Philip Blenkinsop; Editing by Chris Reese)	were constructive and have taken steps in the right direction, European commissioner Maros and it was important that Ukraines Naftogaz would be unbundled, creating a new company to handle transit of gas through Ukraine. We agreed * that we would resume our meeting at the political level by the end of October, when I hope we will have much more progress achieved on the issues that we put on the table today. (Reporting by Philip Blenkinsop; Editing by Chris Reese)
I hope we will have much more progress achieved on the issues that we put on the table today. (Reporting by Philip Blenkinsop; Editing by Chris Reese)	and it was important that Ukraines Naftogaz would be unbundled, creating a new company to (Reporting by Philip Blenkinsop; Editing by Chris Reese)
Kaynak/Source:	Kaynak/Source: