
FOUR EU STATES WANT 'AUTOMATIC' REFUGEE RELOCATION

- 23.09.2019

EU Observer (23 September 2019)

The interior ministers from France, Germany, Italy, and Malta will meet on Monday (23 September) in Malta to discuss an "automatic" system for the relocation of asylum seekers.

European commissioner for migration Dimitris Avramopoulos will also attend the meeting in Malta, as well as the Finnish interior minister, since Finland holds the EU presidency.
