One of Turkmenistan's key foreign policy vectors is the development of multifaceted cooperation with the countries of the Asia-Pacific region, Trend reports on Oct. 18 referring to the Turkmen Dovlet Khabarlary (TDH) state news agency.

Turkmen President Gurbanguly Berdimuhamedov's first state visit to Singapore in August 2019 can be cited as one of the concrete examples, said the agency.

The views on the prospects for cooperation in the fuel and energy sector, the oil and gas chemical industry, as well as in the areas of transport and logistics, seaport management, urban planning, agriculture and investment activity were exchanged during the meetings within the visit.

Turkmenistan also attaches great importance to strengthening fruitful cooperation with the Republic of Korea. President of the Republic of Korea Moon Jae-in paid a state visit to Turkmenistan in April.
