Minister of Education, Science, Culture and Sport of Armenia Arayik Harutyunyan has received today EU Ambassador to Armenia Andrea Wiktorin.

Ambassador Wiktorin has remarked that education is a priority sector for EU and the union is ready to assist Armenia with implementation of relevant reforms.

The parties have agreed that the EU will help the government to complete the drafting of the reform strategy.

Arayik Harutyunyan and Andrea Wiktorin have also discussed the need to create mechanisms for strengthening cooperation in higher education and establish ties between universities, form a network of Erasmus+ alumni and the possibility of expanding the program into the public education system.
