Leaders of 3 countries to meet in Chinese city of Chengdu on Dec. 24

China will host the leaders of Japan and South Korea for a trilateral summit later this month, according to media reports on Thursday.

Chinese Prime Minister Li Keqiang, his Japanese counterpart Shinzo Abe and South Korean President Moon Jae-in will meet in the city of Chengdu on Dec. 24, Seoul-based Yonhap news agency reported.

Citing South Korean Foreign Ministrys statement, Yonhap said Chinas vice foreign minister and his Japanese and South Korean counterparts would hold talks on Friday for the summit.

At their meeting, they will discuss matters related to the preparations for the upcoming summit," the ministry said.
